

Enagic (Malaysia) Sdn Bhd
(201101042983)(AJL931978)

RUMAH KITA

Charity Visit by
Enagic (Malaysia) Sdn Bhd
Jan 16th, 2020

ENAGIC care initiated by Enagic Malaysia

Throughout Malaysia, there are hundreds of individual that live in an extreme conditions; poor living conditions, lack of nutritious food and clean water, education and opportunity. These individuals may comprise of orphanage, elderly, single mother, and more. Without the help from government, non-government organization (NGO), corporate sector and society, we will not be able to break the cycle of poverty.

Jerry @ Nur Hafiz, Compliance Officer

INSIDE THIS SPECIAL ISSUE:

ENAGIC CARE - 2
RUMAH KITA - 3

ENAGIC care

Enagic Malaysia believes in empowering people by lending a hand towards less fortunate community through charity and welfare. As Enagic continues to grow in Malaysia, it is time for us to contribute back to the society.

Enagic Care has been established by early January 2020 and one of its sole purposes is seek the non-government organizations (NGO's) and offers a small contributions. These contributions may come directly from Enagic (Malaysia) Sdn Bhd and/or an accumulative amount that we have collected from the Enagic family; leaders and distributors as well.

Here in Enagic Care, we believe that any form of contributions would play a big role in assisting and lifting up the burden that these unfortunate individuals are facing. These contributions may come in the forms of cash, cheque, vouchers, food, amenities and etc.

As the motto of Enagic Care; "We SHARE, we CARE!", we are hoping that we could change the living conditions of those unfortunate individuals.

"We SHARE, we CARE!"

Ms Angeline Song (Branch Manager) is handling Enagic Care's contributions worth of MYR 5901.30 towards Ms Suraya, Mr Farid and Ms Raudah (representatives of Pertubuhan Kebajikan dan Pendidikan Rumah Kita)

Rumah Kita

January 16th, 2020 - Enagic Care has decided to pay a visit towards Pertubuhan Kebajikan dan Pendidikan Rumah Kita which is located at No 18, Jalan Pandan Jaya, Taman Pandan Jaya, 55100, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

This organization focuses on providing temporary housing, nourishment, pre and post-natal care for single pregnant women. Pertubuhan Kebajikan dan Pendidikan Rumah Kita main aim is to reduce baby dumping amongst the community.

As soon as we have arrived, we have been greeted with warm welcome by Ms Suraya, Mr Farid and Ms Raudah. They have even taken an effort to provide us with the lunch buffet comprising of curry noodles, orange juice and some Malay delicacies.

It turns out that there are around 20 children who are currently being raised and taken care off at Pertubuhan Kebajikan dan Pendidikan Rumah Kita. The background of these children differs as each child may have difference story that leads them to this centre.

Regardless of their backgrounds and stories, these children are definitely being loved by Ms Suraya, Mr Farid, Ms Raudah and other helpers. These unconditional loves given by Pertubuhan Kebajikan dan Pendidikan Rumah Kita will eventually determine the fate of these children thus giving them the opportunity to strive to be a useful person right at an early stage.

This centre also houses pregnant mothers or mothers who have nowhere to go as well.

Ms Ain with the children.

From left; Ms Shermin and Mr Wallace are looking at one of the baby from the Rumah Kita.

From left: Ms Angeline Song (Branch Manager) is handing Tesco Vouchers worth of MYR 1,000.00 towards Mr Farid.

Enagic Care has donated total of MYR 5,901.30 worth of contributions which comprises of Tesco Vouchers, cash transfers as well as some necessities; diapers/pampers, tissue wipes, baby food, pacifiers, baby bathes (shower gels and shampoos) and etc. MYR 686.00 out of the total amount was contributed by the attendees and leaders from the last event in the form of cash donation and purchases of Christmas Set last year.

For those who would love to take the opportunity to contribute and/or know more about this non-government organization (NGO), feel free to contact Pertubuhan Kebajikan dan Pendidikan Rumah Kita's Facebook Account; <https://www.facebook.com/ngo.rumahkita/> directly.

