Enagic CEO Hironari Ohshiro Performs At the Global Convention in Las Vegas With His Family, Staff and Distributors from Okinawa

Hironari Ohshiro
Enagic Founder and CEO

Message from Mr. Ohshiro

Compassion Builds Trust and Community

Showing support, respect, and compassion to your team and customers is a strong foundation for building success as an Independent Distributor. This notion continues to surprise people, but as I've seen time and again throughout my career, if you put other people first and commit to satisfying their wants and needs, they'll learn to trust and respect you. By listening to what they seek, motivating and encouraging them to find fulfillment, and establishing yourself as a leader and resource, people will turn to you and both team and personal success are bound to follow. It also helps our cause to be able to deliver valuable products like Kangen Water® and Ukon to friends, family and neighbors, and contribute to everybody's well-being.

This supportive global community we continue to grow was on full display last month in Las Vegas, where 3,000 Independent Distributors and top leaders from across the world gathered to celebrate Enagic's 49th anniversary and share inspirational stories at our latest global convention, which was a reminder that it's important to focus on your mission, then commission.

Start with one person and repeat a compassionate message, day after day, and before long, your circle of appreciation will grow and thrive. Let's help as many people as we can in the world and deliver our message for True Health. Now is the time to act, and of course to drink Kangen Water®. In fact, I'm going to have a refreshing, hydrating bottle of Kangen Water® right now.

Hironari Ohshiro

Enagic Sponsors Angels Baseball Team and Mr. Ohshiro Attends Game

After enjoying his company's successful 49th Anniversary Global Convention in Las Vegas, Enagic Founder and CEO Hironari Ohshiro flew to Los Angeles, home to Enagic USA's headquarters. During his latest stay in Southern California, he attended an Angels baseball game against the Pittsburgh Pirates on July 21 with his wife Yaeko, their family, and international Enagic executives. Japanese superstar Shohei Ohtani pitched, struck out nine batters, and the Angels won 8-5. At the plate, Ohtani walked three times and scored two runs.

The Ohshiros and Enagic team members also had great views of the big new blue Enagic LED sign that the company sponsored in right field. Throughout the rest of the 2023 season, Enagic branded carafes filled with Kangen Water® and two K8 water ionizers are available in Brewery X, a restaurant and bar in Section 349 — Right Field Club Level. Swing by to stay hydrated.

To help share Kangen Water® with more people, Enagic staff members and Independent Distributors also staffed a blue booth outside Angels Stadium, including 6A John Johnson and 4A May Eugenio. Over 40,000 people attended the game, so hopefully their efforts in the Enagic booth helped to convert more baseball fans to Kangen Water® believers.

Enagic Hosts Action Packed 49th Anniversary Global Convention in Las Vegas

From July 17-19, Enagic welcomed approximately 3,000 Independent Distributors and top leaders from across the world to The Mirage Hotel in Las Vegas for our 49th Anniversary Global Convention. The program included meetings, training sessions, presentations and a 6A2-3 & Above Recognition Ceremony in the grand ballroom and surrounding rooms named for Caribbean islands like Barbados and Bermuda. Enagic also treated attendees to a raffle, a dramatic performance from taiko drummers, the chance to dance to a high energy DJ set, and traditional Okinawan songs from Enagic Founder and CEO Hironari Ohshiro and family.

Mr. Ohshiro spoke at the VIP Top Producers Dinner and delivered the event's inspiring closing speech, which motivated attendees, who responded with a chorus of cheers and laughter.

At the dinner, Mr. Ohshiro praised 6A14-7 Cynthia Briganti, who's been one of highest performing Independent Distributors in company history, for continuing to practice 8-point business after achieving unprecedented success. "Cynthia works as if she's still a 1A or 2A. She keeps doing direct sales. A lot of people forget how important that is when they rank up," Mr. Ohshiro says. "If you don't do the 8-point program, it's like a bird that doesn't chirp."

Mr. Ohshiro also stressed the importance of keeping balance, saying, "When it comes to business, balance is important. When it comes to food, balance is important. When it comes to Ukon and Kangen Water®, those balances are important too." This ties into our mission to achieve True Health, which requires thriving in 3 areas: physical, financial, and mental health.

He described his journey from a "small island" to sharing Kangen Water® with the world. Just in the U.S., approximately 600,000 households now drink Kangen Water®. Mr. Ohshiro showed appreciation, saying, "Thanks to all of you, this is the #1 water to drink in the world."

Mr. Ohshiro will host the 50th Anniversary Global Convention next year at E8PA HQ in Okinawa.

Preeti Kukkar

6A

6A Preeti Kukkar’s journey began with a simple mission: “search for the best water.” A friend named 5A Rajesh Gahlot had the answer, introducing her to Kangen Water®. After sharing Kangen Water® with her mother, Preeti was inspired by the results and embraced “the awesome opportunity of serving the community with the best water.” She also appreciated Enagic’s “strong grounds” and patented 8-point compensation plan and embarked on her eventful journey as an Independent Distributor.

Preeti grew up in Fazilka and currently lives in Chandigarh, another northern Indian city that serves as the capital of two states: Punjab and Haryana. She attended college in Fazilka, graduating with an Arts degree. In business, Preeti previously served as branch manager for an insurance company before following a more entrepreneurial path. The connections that she made in her prior career proved to be valuable as an Independent Distributor.

Preeti sold her first K8 water ionizer to 4A Jyoti Mundhra and has built the business from there. She hopes to reach 6A2-3 ASAP, but ranking up isn't Preeti's only motivating factor. "My goal is to educate each and every individual near me about the right water and make them aware about this awesome opportunity."

To accomplish her mission, Preeti has developed effective methods for her downline:

- "Conducting seminars with our team for the prospects"
- "Educating all our new team members about the company philosophy"
- "Home meetings and luncheons every month"
- "Share all the training modules taken from the company"

In her spare time, Preeti enjoys "buying vegetables, planting and spending time with family." She's shown the ability to reap what she's sown in many areas, but when it comes to business, Preeti's focus is clear. She says, "The only future for me is with Enagic."

Harish Kumar

6A2 Harish Kumar earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Rajasthan in Jaipur, but initially had a hard time finding his footing in the working world. “There was no regular source of income. Everyone was under the impression that I would not be able to lead even an average life. I was eagerly searching for an opportunity,” Harish recalls. Thankfully, discovering Enagic and Kangen Water® improved his prospects and standard of living.

“6A2-2 Sanjay Nagyan introduced me to this wonderful product and opportunity,” Harish says. Before long, he became an Independent Distributor and made an initial sale to 6A Indra Ji, who remains a key member of his organization.

“I achieved a good position in the company very early thanks to my dedicated team,” Harish says. To continue to motivate and inspire his downline, he maintains regular contact with team leaders by telephone, in-person, and through Zoom meetings. To ensure that he personally never slips from Drive into Neutral, Harish loves to read motivational books.

Going forward, Harish plans to achieve a new rank every year. “I aim to continue to achieve the highest rank up to -10,” he says. “My determination and dedication will help me to reach there.”

Distributor Profile

Tiến Hoàng

6A2

6A2 Tiến Hoàng grew up in Vietnam's northern countryside, in a town called Chờ in the Yen Phong district within Bắc Ninh Province. He was the youngest of four siblings, and their family endured economic hardship throughout childhood. Creating better opportunities for Tiến required leaving his hometown.

Tiến worked as an event director and media producer until 2020, a particularly challenging year when he battled Tuberculosis, a life-threatening disease that kept him in the hospital for 8 months. Thankfully, Tiến emerged from this struggle with restored health. He also had a newfound interest: Kangen Water®. His USA based friend introduced him to Enagic's water ionizers and patented 8-point compensation plan and Tiến committed to a career as an Independent Distributor.

Tiến sold his first K8 Kangen Water® ionizer to 5A Nguyen Thi Thuy and he's grown sales in impressive fashion since then. "I now have 10 shared offices in Vietnam to help customers believe in ourselves and the company," he says. His older sister, 1A Nguyen Thi Luyen, is also an Independent Distributor.

To thrive as an Independent Distributor, Tiến implemented and adheres to a system he calls the Golden Triangle. He explains, saying, "The golden triangle includes closely linked and inseparable elements: thinking, skills, and tools."

Thinking

"We need to properly understand the work we do," Tiến says. Getting a grip on how people think is of paramount importance throughout the process. "People must understand customer psychology, customer behavior, understand how the people they approach behave, what they like, and help them satisfy those things," he says.

Collaboration is also key. “We need to have a team spirit that helps the downline take the initiative to do this on their own as soon as possible,” Tiến says. “At the same time, believe in the upline, and always be grateful for the value received when jointly developing the system.”

Skills

Tiến stresses developing two essential skill sets when building a successful Independent Distribution business: hard skills and soft skills.

“The hard skill is that we need to know the parts about the quick and effective product model, the business mechanism and the reward model based on 3 products: Kangen Water® ionizers, Ukon, and Anespa,” Tiến says. “Soft skills such as communication skills with customers. We need to have active listening skills to understand customers.”

Tiến also recommends “continuously improve skills such as questioning skills, customer rejection skills, recruiting skills and system training skills, skills to become an active leader, and skills ability to become a trainer.”

Tools

“To be successful in this job we need to have the tools to work with,” Tiến says, referring specifically to “the online stores selling Enagic products, the DSSP support portal, the website systems, and the training courses.”

To create a “shared scenario” that customers can relate to, Tiến suggests being ready with “inspirational stories, stories of distributors, and of customers when they experience the product.” He says, “This all makes for successful breakthroughs.”

Tiến has a favorite quote from Mr. Ohshiro: “Every conversation and interaction is the start of a new sale or partnership and the potential next step to growing the business. We turn leads into results, conversations into sales, friends into colleagues, leads into customers, customers into team members, team members into leaders. No more excuses. No more waiting. Time for results. You are ready. Your customer is ready. The world is ready. Make it a reality and drink Kangen Water® every step of the way!”

Tiến aims for a 6A2-2 rank by October, hopes to reach 6A2-3 by March 2024 and “will conquer 6A2-8 in 2029.” He will achieve those goals using a 10-part process:

1. Continuously follow up and support distributors in the system
2. Organize training programs and share system building and self-development skills
3. Currently, my system has nearly 40 shows on Zoom about Kangen Water® products and constantly shares with customers about the benefits of magical water and Enagic products.
4. Regularly organize events to connect distributors and customers by month and quarter
5. Organize honoring activities for distributors when leveling up and gaining a position in the company
6. Regularly set goals with teams to accomplish monthly and long-term goals
7. Always train distributors in thinking that each family is a source for sharing Kangen Water®. Support and properly communicate about the characteristics and benefits of the product.
8. Regularly organize workshops and talk shows about successful distributors and have many positive change stories about Kangen Water®’s career.
9. Organize sharing programs via online systems such as: Zoom, Zalo, Facebook and other social networking platforms.
10. Always position yourself as a reputable distributor and define the Kangen Water® career as a lifetime.

Growing up in Vietnam, the success that Tiến has found would have been hard to fathom, but he persisted. “I always wanted my family to have a changed life,” he says. “I can now take my parents to travel, fulfilling the wishes where my parents have not had the opportunity. I will fulfill my dreams of traveling to many parts of the world, learning many cultures and helping myself to be financially free. In addition, I want to help my friends, who I know, change their thinking and health awareness.”

Singapore Distributor Profile

Nelson Lim Hwee Kwang 6A

6A Nelson Lim Hwee Kwang previously worked as a contractor, providing fire protection services like sprinklers, hose reels and alarm systems. In 2020, COVID-19 hit, and a seemingly sustainable profession became problematic, particularly with vendors unable to pay, and Nelson unable to collect. His company amassed SGD$300,000 debt. “I felt lost and did not know what to do,” Nelson says. “I realized that the traditional business was challenging as it is very prone to changes due to external factors and the economy can affect the business drastically.”

By March 2021, Nelson was feeling financial pressure. He was also a single parent to his then 9-year-old daughter and a son to two aging parents who did not have enough time to spend with them. “I felt guilty and was hoping I could improve my financial ability in terms of earning power and more freedom of time,” he recalls. That’s when 6A Nelson Tan introduced him to Enagic. He enjoyed drinking Kangen Water®, and shared testimonials that resulted in approximately 40 water ionizer sales. In June 2022, Nelson became a full-time Independent Distributor, committing to become “more active and responsible” while increasing his Enagic knowledge.

Having a pre-existing client base from his fire protection business proved valuable, starting with Jeffery Lim, a business partner who became a Kangen Water® user. Still, converting sales was rarely easy. “Once it took me less than 30 minutes to convince the prospect to come onboard,” he says. “At the same time, once it took me 16 consecutive demo sessions to close a deal.” Thankfully, leaders instilled a Belief System into Nelson about “never giving up.” He says, “I persevered even though things were not going my way.” That’s still the case.

Succeeding as an Independent Distributor requires continued focus and dedication. Nelson’s “proactive” Kangen Ikigai Touch (K.I.T) Team has been up to the challenge. “There are many in-depth Kangen Water® trainings as well as skill-sets that are critical in a networking business,” Nelson says, mentioning two methods he uses to educate and inspire his downline. He adds, “I believe that as a networker, constant support and motivation are key to become successful!”

Nelson has also enjoyed personal growth. “One of the biggest impacts was learning how to set goals,” he says. “Initially, I wanted to become a 6A by the end 2023, but I managed to achieve this goal in March 2023. Visualizing goals made me a more focused and disciplined person.”

Nelson has experienced some success, but still keeps his foot on the gas pedal. “My targeted objective entails achieving a 6A2-3 ranking by the year 2025,” he says. “I am diligently pursuing this goal by actively enrolling in a multitude of educational courses, including the Go Pro program and exclusive events hosted by distinguished leaders within the Enagic organization.”

“I am truly blessed to be introduced to both Kangen Water® and this business,” he says. “I am thankful to Enagic, Mr. Ohshiro, and my leaders in the team for the continuous support.”
